

Hutchens, Senter & Britton Announces Certified Paralegals

Jody Bumanglag, Paula Register, David Taylor, Christina Vandevender and Keith Vess join select group

FAYETTEVILLE, WILMINGTON and RALEIGH, N.C., June 2006 – The Law Firm of Hutchens, Senter & Britton, P.A., a creditors' rights and civil litigation law firm based in North Carolina, announces that Jody Bumanglag, Paula Register, David Taylor, Christina Vandevender and Keith Vess have qualified as North Carolina State Bar Certified Paralegals.

"We congratulate Jody, Paula, David, Christina and Keith on this important achievement," said Terry Hutchens, managing partner of Hutchens, Senter & Britton. "They are talented members of the Hutchens, Senter & Britton team and their significant contributions to the Firm have been invaluable."

Bumanglag received her associate degree in public service, with honors, from Midlands Technical College, in Columbia, S.C. She is a member of the Cumberland County Paralegal Association and Phi Theta Kappa International Honor Society.

Register received her associate degree in paralegal technology from Johnston Community College, in Smithfield, N.C. Taylor received his undergraduate degree from Western Illinois University in Macomb, Ill. and his paralegal training from Denver Paralegal Institute in Denver, Colo.

Vandevender received her associate degree in commercial art from Chowan Junior College in Murfreesboro, N.C., her undergraduate degree in government from Campbell University in Buies Creek, N.C. and her legal assistants program certificate from Meredith College in Raleigh, N.C. Vandevender is a member of the North Carolina Bar Association, Legal Assistants Division.

Vess received his associate degree in paralegal technology, with honors, from Western Piedmont Community College in Morganton, N.C. He is a member of the North Carolina State Bar and the North Carolina Bar Association, Legal Assistants Division.