Hutchens Elected to USFN Board of Directors

Managing partner of The Law Firm of Hutchens, Senter & Britton, P.A., Terry Hutchens was recently elected to serve a three-year term on the board of directors for USFN-America's Mortgage Banking Attorneys®.

USFN is a resource network serving the mortgage industry. Formerly known as the U.S. Foreclosure Network, it is one of the largest not-for-profit associations of law firms and trustee companies in the nation.

Hutchens is a frequent contributor to several national publications, including Servicing Management and USFN Report. His most recent article, which focused on new laws that will affect loan servicers in North Carolina, was featured in the December issue of Servicing Management.
