High School Mock Trial Team Advances to Finals in Charlotte

With lawyer adviser J. Scott Flowers of The Law Firm of Hutchens, Senter & Britton advising the team, Terry Sanford High School's Mock Trial team took the prize in the 16th Annual Wade Edwards High School Mock Trial Fayetteville Regional Competition on February 9. The team moves on to the state finals on March 8 and 9 in Charlotte.

Flowers, who advised the team last year and led them to a win in the state competition, says this year's team is very promising.

"This group is very talented," says Flowers. "I am confident that they have the ability to do well at the State Finals."

The Terry Sanford team, coached by teacher Kevin Hight, is composed of Jonny Clark, Lionel Earl, Jonathan Franco, Elissa Happel, Wynne Kelly, Michael Koonce, Olivia McDonald and Adam Murray.

Rebecca Britton, who is a partner with The Law Firm of Hutchens, Senter & Britton, is the regional coordinator for the competition.
